

THE ART OF ART DECO

The Arts Society Speyside is delighted to invite members, guests and visitors to an exciting Special Interest Day on this fascinating and ever popular subject on Thursday 18 April 2024 at Nairn Community and Arts Centre.

The day comprises three lectures by Pamela Campbell-Johnston

THE ART OF ART DECO

FROM CLARIDGES TO THE LONDON UNDERGROUND – THE ART OF MARION DORN

BRITAIN'S ART DECO ARCHITECTURE

Pamela Campbell-Johnston is a MA Hons Art History graduate of the University of St Andrews. She is an accredited lecturer of The Arts Society. She has over 30 years experience as a lecturer specialising in British Domestic Architecture and Modern British Art with a particular love for the 1920's and 1930's. She worked at the Royal Academy of Arts for 12 years and is now a freelance art consultant, lecturer and curator.

The first lecture will give an overview of the glamorous and popular Art Deco style of the 1920's and 1930's including its designers, artists, craftsmen and architects.

The second focuses on the art of textile designer Marion Dorn one of the most influential designers of the period.

The third covers Art Deco Architecture, loved by the British public and seen in all areas from hotels and restaurants to tube stations, public and private buildings and tube stations.

The cost per person is £40 which includes coffee and shortbread from 10.30am and a buffet lunch. The lectures start at 11am promptly and the day will finish around 3.15pm. Early booking is recommended to secure a place.
